

Fairtrade works in partnership with producing communities to protect children from child labour
Children can be actors of change in their communities. Listening to their views is the best way to protect them.

FAIRTRADE

START

FINISH